As this course is a physical activity course you are expected to be extremely ACTIVE at all times during the course. In addition, as most of the course mark is based on your daily participation, absences from class will be very costly and simply not tolerated. YOU must be responsible and YOU therefore must take ownership of your learning in this course. Thus, YOU are responsible for your daily attendance, activity level, motivation as well as for making up any missed work assignments.

To enhance your knowledge and understanding of the fitness industry, a number of tentative fitness outings may be scheduled. Some outings are free of charge, other may require a small fee.
